

Pen breakdown

Yellow safety cover

This contains the injection needle.

Protection blue cap

This protects patients from the needle until they are ready to inject.

Pre-filled pen without activation button

With no button to push, this device has an easy-to-follow process to inject with one step less than the alternative device.³⁻⁴

Inspection window

The window provides a visual cue for patients. The entire window turns yellow once the full dose has been delivered.

